Puunene Captures First of Series

Wacs Blow Up in Fourth After Huskies Find Their Lone Pitcher for Three Runs in Third.

One for Puunene on the play off. They defeated the Wacs 12 to 4 in the first of the series last Sunday. Two innings of Class A ball on the part of the Wacs was a flash in the pan and the team turned the rest of the game into a baroque. It might have been possible to have saved the game had the Ponies had a relief pitcher when it became plain in the third that Cockett had an off day, but only one pitcher has been warmed up for any of the league games by the Wacs this season, they have tried to go through the season with one pitcher which is unfair to Cockett and his team mates as well. When the players saw their pitcher was ineffective they blew up and in the remaining seven innings gave an exhibition of how not to play baseball. It was the second time the Wacs had shown the need of a relief pitcher and they had learned nothing from their first experience.

In the third inning the Wacs scored cleverly. William Cummings singled, Asan sacrificed and tricked the Puunene first baseman into holding the ball so long that Cummings went on to third; Curtis was safe on an error and Cummings scored; Alfonso sacrificed and on the same trick that Asan had played on Enos, Curtis landed on third; Wells Cummings was hit by pitcher and Curtis died on third when William Cockett made the third out.

In the third for Puunene Ray Freitas singled and took second when a balk was called on Cockett; Joe Silva whiffed; Shim was passed; Philip singled and so did Bill Bal, but Bal was out on Tadashi's fielders' choice. Enos and Masachi both went out William Cummings to William Cockett. Three runs on four hits and a base on balls.

In the fourth Puunene scored again. Nakamura went to second on Curtis error of his hard hit; Freitas fanned, Joe Silva flew out; Shim walked again, Philip was safe on William Cummings error and Nakamura scored; Shim scored on Bill Bal's second single. Three more runs on one hit and bunch of errors by the Wacs came in the fifth and it was only a question of how badly the Wacs would be beaten from then on.

Puunene played a fairly clean fielding game and Bal did not have to extend himself in the pitcher's box.

Tennis

Tennis championship of Maui will be decided on the Puunene courts this afternoon, when Caleb Burns and Eddie Tam will meet at 4 o'clock for the final sets in the All-Maui championship singles. From past performances the match should be well contested and furnish one of the best exhibitions of the net game that Maui has seen.

Winning their way through the semi-finals, Burns defeated William Engle in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-3, but Tam had a hard battle to win from R. B. Rietow, their score being 6-2, 6-2, 5-7, 4-6 and 6-0.

Next of major importance is the All-Maui ladies' singles championship, which is to be started next week.

On the Settlement courts the ladies' handicap singles is to be started tomorrow, and it will be followed by the club's men's handicap singles, for which entries will close August 15, with Eddie Tam at the Baldwin Bank, Kahului.

Lahaina Pulls its Game Out in Eighth

Paia Looks Like a Winner Coming Up From Behind, but Pitcher Weakens and Victory Slips Away.

Lahaina is off in the lead for the second series, winning a game which was pulled out of the fire once by each team, finally by the West Mauiites when Reid weakened in the eighth when his team had the game in their hands.

For four innings the game was almost airtight ball, each team getting only one hit in that period. In the fifth Paia got three men on, but failed to put a run over. Then Lahaina found Roach. Joe Rodriguez singled and Kaluakini also landed one safe; all were safe on Robinson's error from Gitchi's bat; the three advanced a base on Ledward's long fly out to Ornellas; Devauchelle singled; Maxwell doubled; Mitsui singled, but was caught at second, and Tsuda retired the side.

Paia scored three in the sixth, one in the seventh and took a two-run lead in the eighth, coming into the stretch strong and looking like an almost sure winner, piling up 9 of their 12 hits in those three innings, but that finished their scoring, and the game was lost in the last half of that inning. Maxwell was out at first; Mitsui was passed; Tsuda was hit by pitcher; Hoke singled; Joe Rodriguez fanned; Kaluakini walked; Gitchi singled; Ledward was safe on an error; Devauchelle was hit by a pitched ball and Maxwell ended the inning. Robinson to McCluskey.

Lahaina was outbatted, but bunched their hits better, and in fielding errors were equally divided.

Sporting Goods Store To Be Opened by Lewis

Devoted exclusively to sporting goods, an establishment will be opened in Wailuku by Leland C. Lewis on his return from the mainland. Lewis left Maui on the second of July and expects to return next month. While on the mainland he is arranging for goods and for agencies.

Although Lewis came to Maui only last winter as supervisor of boys' work for Alexander House Settlement, it is doubtful if any one on Maui has a wider acquaintance in athletic circles than has Lewis, especially among the younger element. His work threw him into contact with them, especially during the basketball season and on the occasion of the track meet. He has also been instrumental in seeking to introduce into the schools American football, and one game was played under his direction this spring. Also he was instrumental in promoting a boxing meet from which it was expected a ringside club would grow. He has been urged as head of the A. A. U. on this island if Maui shall enter the union.

Lewis is confident there is an opening for an exclusive sporting goods establishment here. He knows the various sports and their requirements and his many friends are confident he will make a success of his new venture.

BASKETBALL

There will be a basketball game played at the Alexander House Settlement Gym. tomorrow night at 8
